THE INDIAN SITUATION

The Interior Department Sums Up the Situation.

All the Sioux but 3500 are On their Reservations.

To Conquer these Genoral Miles has 8000 Men.

Idaho Tribes Cause Alarm by Donning War Paint

The Indian situation

WASHINGTON January 8 The situation as summed up at the interior department to day is not satisfactory There are in all about 20 000 Sioux Indians men women and children on the northern reservations Of this number 16 500 are accounted for as they are living on the reservations in peace and not taking any part in the present disturbance This leaves about 3500 men women and children to face the earthworks the howitzers and the 8000 men now under the command of Generl Miles The hostile camp is located about 17 miles north of the agency and the cordon of troops surrounds the hostile camp with the exception of the south side the object being to drive the Indians into the reservation There is constant communication between the hostile camp and the agency The hostiles are well supplied with beef, but they have no sugar or coffee except as they are supplied by the friendlies While the situation is regarded as a hopeless one for the Indians yet it is believed that they have no intention of surrendering

From reports received at the interior department the situation is believed to be tense, and the people at the agencies are very much disturbed

The president to day appointed Capt Francis E Pierce, First infantry to be agent of the Indians at Pine Ridge agency, vice Mr Royer removed

A New Outbreak

BOISE CITY Idaho January 8 —Advices received from Pocatello, Idaho state that the Indians on the Fort Hall reservation have been dancing and 200 in war paint have taken to the mountains with arms, causing great excitement Governor Wiley has been asked to order the militia to Pocatello, and probably the troop of United States cavalry at Boise barracks will be sent there

The Indians on the reservation number 1200 or 1500 more than half of whom are Bannocks who caused the prolonged war twelve years ago The people of Pocatello have almost no arms and the towns of Eagle and Black Foot are on the border of the reservation The Indians who took to the mountains are working eastward toward Wyoming The belief is expressed that if the Indians at Pocatello go on the war path they will be joined by the tribes on Lemhi reservation who number 500 embracing 125 able bodied bucks

Excitement in Idaho

BOISE CITY, Idaho, January 8.—There is no truth in the report of the burning of Pocatello There is considerable excitement there and at Blackfoot over the hostile attitude of the Bannocks on the Fort Hall reservation Governor Wiley has received the following from Blackfoot A meeting of citizens under call of the commander of the G A R post resolved to communicate with you requesting you to forward to us immediately 50 guns, with the usual equipments and ammunitions. Danger is possible, and no arms are available A permanent military organization is about to be perfected. Governor Wiley accordingly has just shipped by express 50 guns and 3000 rounds of ammunition

Lieutenant Casey Killed

PINE RIDGE, S D January 8 —General Miles has received an official report that Lieutenant Edward W Casey Twenty second infantry, has been killed by the hostiles The unfortunate young officer had gone to one of the hostile camps when he was fired at and shot through the head His body has been recovered He was regarded as one of the ablest young officers in the service He graduated from West Point in 1878 and was promoted to the rank of first lieutenant in 1880

All Hostiles Now

LINCOLN Neb January 8 —A special to the Journal from Springview Neb says Chief Yellow Horse formerly Lieutenant of the Indian police at Rosebud agency passed through this town with a considerable following When asked if he was not afraid to meet the warring element of his tribe he replied No we are all hostiles now Yellow Horse was supposed to be a friendly Swift Bear and his band formerly of the same agency, also declared for war Both chiefs are supposed to be hearing for the hostile camp near Pine Ridge

Hostiles Coming In

WASHINGTON January 8 —General Schofield this morning received the following telegram from General Miles, dated Pine Ridge Agency January 8 Seventy Indians came in from the hostile camp to-day and reports from them are that Red Cloud Little Wound Two Strike and Big Road and others will come in to morrow

Broke Out in Iowa

WATERLOO Iowa January 8 —It is reported here that the Musquak Indians located in the southern part of Tama county have an attack of the Messiah craze and there is apt to be an outbreak at any time There are about three hundred of them The Governor's Grays, the Iowa Cedar Rifles and two companies of Algona guards have been ordered in readiness and it is expected that the company here will receive orders very soon

Quiet on the Cheyenne

MINNEAPOLIS January 8 A special from Pierre S D to the Tribune says John Holland chief of Indian scouts of the Cheyenne country arrived in the city to day and reports everything quiet on the Cheyenne There are stationed at Fort Sully four companies of soldiers who have in charge 228 of Sitting Bull's warriors There are three companies of infantry at Ft Bennett and four at Cheyenne City 50 miles west of Ft Bennett All the Cheyenne Indians are now at the agency with the exception of those from Big Foot and Humps band who went on the war path and they were nearly all killed in the late battle

Rev Joseph Bird, Indian minister from Big Foot's hostile camp on the Cheyenne, was in for medicine He says the Cheyenne country almost deserted Indians the above bodied being either at the agency or on the war path Many of the Indians are left to shift for themselves

A Denver Enterprise

DENVER January 8 The Denver Iron and Steel Co with a capital of $5 000 000 was incorporated here to day by David H Moffatt Walter Cheesman ex Senator Tabor Brown Brothers and some of his associates and other capitalists It is the intention to erect a plant for the manufacture of steel rails and all other kinds of iron goods

Mcgrath Explains

DENVER January 8 Steps have been taken here for the impeachment of Frank McGrath President of the Kansas Farmers Alliance who is accused of being a party to the alleged scheme to elect Peter Turner republican congressman from the Sixth District to the United States senate The matter was brought before a special meeting of the executive board of the alliance which is to be investigated in this city next week The board consists of five men with Mr McGrath chairman State Senator Codding who is also alleged to be in the ring and dealing with McGrath is also a member of the board

Mr McGrath sent a copy of a letter to the public to the correspondent of the Associated Press this morning in which he denies knowing anything of the authorship of the letter In it Mr McGrath says If this letter was written by Mr Turner he is the prince of fools and had no authority right or encouragement to suppose that I would consider for one instant his or any other man's letter who did not insure the following qualifications for the position He must be a farmer an alliance man and have worked for the success of the people's party during the last campaign Mr McGrath adds that he believes the letter signed with Mr Turner's name to be a forgery Mr McGrath courts investigation and has called a meeting of the Farmers alliance and people's party leaders to look into the matter The meeting is to be held to morrow afternoon

Colorado's Snow Storm

DENVER, January 8 —A heavy snow storm set in here last night about 1 o clock and has been raging ever since It covers the ground to night about seven inches in depth and is still falling This is the first snow storm of the season, and is general throughout the state All trains are running on time

Confess their Crime

DALLAS, January 8 —In Waldo county Texas Lon Holland and Mrs Sands have been jailed for killing the husband of the woman Mrs Sands was undutiful to her husband and conspired with her lover to kill him so they could marry and enjoy his wealth The prisoners have made a clean breast of committing the crime

A Human Sacrifice

CHICAGO, January 8 —A dispatch from Winnepeg Manitoba, says The story of a deed which rivals in fiendishness those of Massachusetts in witchcraft days comes from the Saskatchewan valley In June last an Indian Blue Horn, went hunting and trapping in the Beaver hills near Fort Saskatchewan, accompained by a boy about eight years old, the eldest son of a Victoria Indian While looking at his traps one day, accompanied by the boy Blue Horn told the latter to return to camp while he continued setting his traps On the return of Blue Horn to the camp he was surprised to find that the boy was not there The other Indians in the camp turned out and searched for the boy, but did not find him, and finally gave it up Yesterday a half breed from Beaver Lake named Charles Deshenut, found in the woods not far from New Beaver Lake a trail, and about six miles east of Fort Saskatchewan the skeleton of the child in a standing position, its arms stretched out and wrists tied to two trees He did not remove the skeleton, but went to inform the father of the lost boy in order that he might see it and identify it as the remains of his son From circumstances surrounding the affair, it is evident the boy had been offered as a sacrifice to secure good luck in hunting by the Indians As is their custom, the savages had hung about the body bits of clothes and trinkets to propitiate the gods

Cyclone in Texas

CHICAGO January 8 —A special dispatch from Sherman Texas says that a cyclone passed east of that city yesterday afternoon Several houses were blown down and an infant was killed and four adults seriously wounded John Schmidt was blown over a barbed wire fence He seized the wire as he passed and his hand was almost torn off House hold goods are scattered about for miles, and the loss is great Further search may reveal many more dead bodies

Seeks a for a Museum

RICHMOND Va., January 8 —It is settled that the old-fashioned brick structure here known during the war as the Confederate White house is to be used in future for the preservation of confederate relics A movement was started more than a year ago by the ladies of Hollywood Memorial association to get this building for this purpose Some legal objection was raised to this on the ground that the city did not have authority to surrender the property for the object sought This, however, was overcome by making it a museum as well as a place of preservation of war relics The two branches of the city council recently passed an ordinance carrying into effect the purposes of the ladies Mayor Ellison approved the action last night

The Standard's Opinion

LONDON January 8 —The Standard in an editorial this morning, said The present reticence of the two Irish parties is a sign that an energetic attempt is being made to patch up the quarrel, both sides realizing the difficulty of moving the national train with an engine at each end The probable result of the conference of the Irish leaders will be a renewal of the Parnell regime after a short sham retirement

Result of the Conference

DUBLIN, January 8 —The Freeman's Journal says that Mr Parnell denies the statements published to the effect that Mr Parnell has agreed not to canvass Ireland until the general election that he has agreed to transfer funds to Mr O Brien in order that the latter may pay the Tipperary tenants that Mr O Brien has agreed to secure Mr McCarthy's deposition, and that Mr O Brien will lead the reunited Irish party

The Freeman's Journal declares that the conference closed hopeful of a message satisfactory to the Irish at home and abroad, hopeful that the conference would not be fruitless and hopeful that it would have a great practical and salutary effect toward a renewal of the union of the irresistible Irish party

Denial from O'Brien

BOULOGNE SUR MER January 8.—Mr O Brien requests that a denial be given to the reports that have been circulated to the effect that Mr. Parnell has agreed to retire and that he, O'Brien is to replace Mr. McCarthy as leader of the Irish party.

NEBRASKA'S FARMERS.

They Take Possession of the Capitol Before Daylight

Speaker Elder Steals a March on the Lieutenant Governor

Supreme Court Called on to Decide Between Them.

Writ Issued Directing the Speaker to Canvass Returns

The Nebraska Contest

LINCOLN, January 8 —All doors of the representatives hall were closely guarded this morning and none but members of the legislature state officers and persons having business inside were admitted All the members were on hand promptly although they found great difficulty in pushing their way through the crowds that filled the corridors and besieged the capitol at all points The alliance members had taken possession of the house at 2 o'clock in the morning They placed the speaker in the chair and put a cordon of assistant sergeants at arms around him When Lieutenant Governor Meeklejohn appeared he was not allowed to take his seat but stood in front of the speaker ready to call the joint session to order

At 9 o'clock the speaker issued an order for the arrest of Lieutenant Governor Meeklejohn on the charge of misconduct to office and breach of the peace The lieutenant governor defied the officer and was not taken into custody Both sides had a force of sergeants at arms within call and any attempt on either side to proceed with the canvass of the vote would have precipitated a row To avoid this a committee from each party was sent with a statement of the case to the supreme court, and at 10 30 a m the house is waiting in suspense for a decision as to which officer has the constitutional right to preside

Governor Thayer has ordered out a company of national guards and at 11 o'clock they have stacked arms in the corridors of the capitol Crowds are arriving on every train to attend the inauguration of Governor elect Boyd and considerable impatience is shown over the delay in counting the votes The militia is called out only as a precautionary measure There is little danger of an outbreak

LINCOLN, January 8 —At 12 10 it is understood that the supreme court has issued a writ of mandamus, directing the speaker of the house to canvass the returns The sheriff of Lancaster county with deputies and a bailiff of the supreme court, has just burst in the doors of the house and fought his way through the crowd of alliance men guarding the entrance. The writ has been served on the speaker a motion to take a recess until 3 o clock has been declared carried by the lieutenant governor, and the republicans have filed out of the hall The speaker of the house declares that no recess has been taken and the alliance members remain and the roll is being called They will attempt to proceed to the business of the joint session

Colorado's General Assembly

DENVER January 8.—The senate convened at 10 o'clock this morning The first business was the adoption of a resolution demanding free and unlimited coinage of silver and expressing confidence in the wisdom and integrity of Senators Wolcott and Teller.

Senator Gunnell introduced a resolution denouncing the federal elections bill, which was laid over for one day

Fifteen bills were introduced all of which were referred to proper committees

Adjourned

The house adopted similar resolutions regarding silver and the elections bill as were adopted in the senate Several minor offices were filled, after which adjourned

The governor's message will be sent to the assembly to morrow

Russell's Recommendations

BOSTON January 8 —In his message to day Governor Russell advocates an amendment to the constitution of the state annulling so much of it as requires the payment of a tax as a qualification for voting Alluding to the question of the 'lobby,' he says It is far easier to state the evil than to suggest the remedy Clearly it is impossible and improper to prevent a constituent or other person from having the freest access to a legislator This constitutional right guaranteed to the people gives opportunity to the lobby to do its work Prevention by non intercourse is therefore impossible Prevention by publicity is possible and I would suggest for your consideration whether a remedy may not be found to this direction by making it easier than it is now to investigate the methods used and money spent on pending legislation The fear of publicity, and through it of defeat may stop improper practices by making them worse than useless He strongly recommends that the legislature petition congress to take action for the proper protection of railroad employes against the dangers to which they are exposed

Unanimous for Stanford

SACRAMENTO Cala January 8 —The republican members of both branches of the legislature last night unanimously renominated Leland Stanford for United States senator Democrats decided to give their complimentary vote to Phelps M White

Investigation Ordered

HARTFORD January 8 —The house assembled shortly after 10 o clock The joint resolutions passed late yesterday afternoon by the senate were received They declare each of the democrat state officers elected A resolution was adopted creating a special committee of the house on canvass of state officers, referring the returns to them and directing them to investigate allegations of inaccuracies of the count recited in the preamble Adjourned till January 20

One Said with Conspiracy

BOISE CITY, Idaho January 8 —There are rumors afloat here of a startling move to be made in connection with the recent senatorial election Section 6100 of the Idaho revised statutes declares it a felony for a member of the legislature to vote or promise to support upon any question or matter in return for the support of another member or any question or matter upon which they may be called upon to pass officially It is said warrants will be sworn out under the above section for the arrest of several members of the legislature, who were connected with the alleged Shoup-Dubois McConnell deal by charging them with felonious conspiracy against the legislature.

Free Coinage Outlook

WASHINGTON January 8 The Star has this to say It seems to be clear that free coinage will pass the senate when the vote is reached and it is among friends in the house Mr Reed is opposed to the bill but may not adopt a rule to prevent its coming to a vote when it has been the house

Emma Abbott's Resolution

PITTSBURG January 8 It is expected that the body of Emma Abbott who died in Salt Lake City on Monday will be brought to Pittsburg to be cremated Back in the seventies when the first bodies were cremated the Lovegrove crematory in Pennsylvania Miss Abbott happened to be on a visit to town and was much interested in the new method of disposing of the dead Three years ago when Peter Abbott and Miss Abbott were separated from each other while on the Pittsburg opera story which has just been completed A few months ago they were reunited and Peter Abbott is now almost by her bedside and is grief stricken Before she left Cincinnati to fill her engagement in Salt Lake City she said to Miss Annandale

How horrible you mean was the fact of the cremation

Oh it is a comfort to all I am not afraid of the thought of death and I long to fill be burned anyway she continued with a laugh And it will come about this visit to the crematory was made Picking up a tiny piece of bone Miss Abbott remarked as she left the place after an hour's stay If I may have this I will have it mounted in a pin and wear it as a sort of trap ist emblem memento or memoir you know and be sides it will remind me of my resolution

What resolution was asked

I have definitely determined to do what I have said I would do before When I die I shall be cremated If it can be managed I shall be cremated right here in Pittsburg Only a few weeks ago during her last appearance here Miss Abbott alluded to her desire to be cremated as a thing settled and understood The persons in charge of the crematory will give no information, but it is believed they have been instructed to have the retort in readiness

CHICAGO January 8 —Miss Abbott's brother in law A B Clark has entered into correspondence with the managers of the Detroit crematory and if the wishes of Miss Abbott as is believed will be expressed in her will favor cremation the disposition will be made of the remains in accordance therewith In the meantime they will repose in the vault at Graceland where they will be taken from the Central Music hall Friday afternoon at 2 o clock after short funeral services

Nothing to It

NEW YORK January 8 —Speaking of the report that Jay Gould was about to buy a controlling interest in the Atchison Topeka and Santa Fe railroad Mr George J Gould said yesterday "There is nothing in it Mr Gould is not buying any railroads at present He has got all that he can comfortably attend to Our relations with the Atchison people are very friendly The management of that system is all right as it is There will be no consolidation with the Missouri Pacific" Mr George C Magoun chairman of the executive board of the Atchison said That report is sheer nonsense No such consolidation is thought of

New Treasury Bill

DENVER, January 8 —Following is the text of the treasury bill introduced in the senate to day, by Senator Carpenter It was considered in committee of the whole, read the second time, engrossed, ordered printed and placed on file for final passage to morrow

SECTION 1 That the state treasurer shall on or before the second Tuesday in January after his election, and before entering upon the duties of his office take and subscribe he oath required by the constitution and give a bond to the state of Colorado in the sum of $1 000 000 with not less than ten sureties to be approved by the governor attorney general and secretary of state which bond shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state The governor with the concurrence of either the attorney general or the secretary of state, whenever he deems the sureties on the bond of the state treasurer to be insufficient for the said sum of $1 000 000 may demand and the state treasurer shall give additional bonds and sureties to be approved by the governor attorney general and secretary of state The state treasurer daily elected shall give such bond and procure the approval thereof prior to entering upon the duties of his office

SEC 2 The condition of such bond shall be in substance that the treasurer and all persons employed in his office shall faithfully discharge their respective duties and trusts and that the said treasurer shall use all necessary and reasonable diligence and care in the safe keeping and lawful disposal of all sums of money and accretions thereof books bonds, notes papers, and all other things pertaining to said office, and which he shall have or which shall come into his hands or to the hands of any person or persons employed by him or been received by him as interest or otherwise and that the said treasurer shall upon reasonable notice render a true and faithful account of all moneys and accretions thereof or interest thereon whenever he shall be thereunto required by any provision of law in that behalf or by the senate or house of representatives and shall deliver to his successor in office or to any other person authorized by law to receive the same, all moneys and accretions thereof books, bonds notes papers and all other things belonging to said office and especially all moneys received as interest or otherwise for the deposit of state moneys in any bank or safe deposit and all balances that shall appear against him shall be forthwith paid into the treasury of the state

SEC 3 That the state treasurer be and he is hereby authorized to appoint a deputy whose salary shall be $2500 per annum and such clerks as he may deem necessary whose total salaries shall not exceed $1500 per annum said salaries to be paid from the appropriation made for the payment of the salaries of the officers of the executive department

SEC 4 The state treasurer shall receive a salary of $6000 per annum to be paid from the appropriation made for the payment of the salaries of the officers of the executive department

SEC 5 General sections 1350 1351 and 1352 of the general statutes of the state of Colorado and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed provided however that no act thing or transaction done, or required to be done or omitted to be done or cause of action accrued or hereafter to accrue or action or proceeding pending or bond given shall be affected by this repeal

SEC 6 Whereas, in the opinion of the general assembly an emergency exists, therefore this act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage

As originally introduced, the bill provided for a treasurer's bond of $1,500,000 which was subsequently amended, and reduced as set forth in the bill as finally passed

A Message From the East:

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, December 27, 1890

To My Customers and the General Public

I have been long enough in the East to have ascertained that banking and moneyed men financiers and experienced men of affairs concede in the opinion that the worst of the financial squeeze is over and that after New Years, money will loosen up and find its way into generous circulation All other considerations being favorable to a lively REAL ESTATE business in Colorado Springs it needs only an easy money market to start the wheels of trade into active motion once again and I confidently look for the year 1891 to develop the most prosperous real estate movement in the history of Colorado Springs All we want to do to aid this movement, is to show the confidence we have in our own future, and to make known to the world the extent and variety of our resources and what we have to offer them For my part I beg to offer for sale, as per list below an unexcelled variety of REAL ESTATE, from amongst which no one can fail to find something suitable to his wants, and upon my return to Colorado, before the end of January, 1891 I trust that I may be favored with calls from wise investors, who wish to select BARGAINS IN REAL ESTATE IN ADVANCE OF THE RISE IN PRICES which is sure to come before long.

Respectfully,

M L DECOURSEY,
Real Estate Agent.

The Beacon Hill Addition is just north of Parrish's Addition, and the Rapid Transit Cars, which run North from Huerfano Street via Spruce Street, go through both Additions. Proceeding further North and a trifle East, we strike the West End Addition, close to the West border of which the Rapid Transit Cars run. These Additions are destined to be favorite localities for residence of people in moderate circumstances. Those who can afford it and who are wise, will buy lots at FIRST PRICES, before the advance, which is certain to come soon.
6. I am Sole Agent for the sale of one-half of ORRIN'S ADDITION, containing just seventeen lots, lying just North and East of Parrish's Addition, to which many of the foregoing remarks will apply This Addition is receiving the active attention of buyers and builders, as a visit to the locality will show. The lots in all these Western Additions, as close to the main City as these are, are quite certain to advance in value at an early date, and proposing buyers should not delay making their purchases.
7. I am also Sole Agent for the sale of the lots in CALVERT HEIGHTS, adjoining Colorado City, the Midland Railroad shops and the Glass Works. The recent purchase of the Midland road by the A T & S F and the plans of the latter Company for the enlargement of the shops at Colorado City, and the improvement of their other property there, are sure to confer increased and increasing value on lots in Calvert Heights, which I am now offering at figures ranging from $250 to $450, on the EASY INSTALLMENT PLAN.
8. I offer for Sale a number of lots in the Southern part of the city, including two desirable corners, at quite MODERATE PRICES and on EASY TERMS.

H. W. STREET,
Manager of the GAZETTE

The state senate is fortunate in having both a statesman and a clergyman as its chaplain. We may be sure that the senate will now be opened with a states manlike prayer every morning.

Considerable was expected of Mr J H. Brown, a member of the lower house, but he was very "fresh" on the first day, and seemed wholly unacquainted with the ordinary rules of parliamentary procedure. Mr. Eddy moved that the rules of the Seventh general assembly govern until other action be taken by this house. Mr. Brown opposed the motion, and caused considerable debate, which resulted in the passage of a motion to the same effect. If Mr. Brown wants to be useful and make a record as a leader he ought not to waste his breath in making useless opposition to necessary motions. It looks a little bit as though he was trying to compete in this way for the leadership of the house. If he proposes to, he ought to have some man of common sense and ordinary parliamentary information to prompt him.

Lieutenant Edward W. Casey, chief of the Cheyenne Indian scouts, who was killed by the Sioux yesterday, was one of the most meritorious officers in the army. He comes of a military family. His father, General Silas Casey, was one of the most distinguished officers of the old army. His brother, Thomas L. Casey, is brigadier general and chief of engineers, United States army. Another brother, Captain Silas Casey, of the navy, has just been appointed commander of the splendid new cruiser "Newark," and his nephew, Thomas L. Casey, jr., is a lieutenant in the army. Lieutenant Casey had remarkable success in drilling his Indian scouts. In a few months he transformed his Indians from lazy loafers to a band of industrious men. The story of the transformation which he made is told in Harper's weekly of two or three weeks ago. He believed that with just and fair treatment they could be brought within the pale of civilization. He had great confidence in these scouts, who certainly had shown remarkable improvement. His death seems to have occurred from too great confidence in the Sioux, who killed him while approaching them. He was a noble fellow and deserved a better fate.

The Republican yesterday had a very interesting editorial on the "Indian Situation." We are informed that, if General Miles' force is strong enough he will be able to prevent the escape of the hostiles and finally compel them to surrender; that, the president is urging that there be no further bloodshed if possible, but that General Miles may shed blood if he thinks it is best; that, it is doubtful whether starvation and privation will make them submissive or desperate; that, if they are desperate they may throw themselves against General Miles' soldiers and may precipitate a bloody battle; that, if the Indians who are surrounded are defeated in a pitched battle they will be unable to renew the fight, etc. Of course it would be much more interesting, in giving a view of the Indian situation, to know whether General Miles' force is strong enough to compel the surrender of the Indians; to know whether the trouble is to be settled without bloodshed; and to know whether the Indians are desperate enough to throw themselves against General Miles. The writer ought to be appointed agent of an agnostic society. As the Republican is now taking the largest telegraph report of any paper in the state it ought not to waste its room on writers who take a great deal of space and do not say anything. We may be sure that Colonel Stapleton did not write this. When he hasn't anything to say he keeps his mouth shut.

General Charles Devens, who died on Wednesday was one of the best soldiers sent out from Massachusetts during the war. He was major of an independent battalion of rifles for the first three months of the war. Then he was appointed colonel of the Fifteenth Massachusetts volunteers, which played such a distinguished part in many a hard fought battle. He was wounded at the battle of Ball's Bluff in 1861. In 1862 he was made brigadier general of volunteers, and commanded a brigade in the Peninsular campaign. He was wounded at Fair Oaks again, but recovered soon enough to participate in the battles of Antietam and Fredericksburg. In 1863 he commanded a division of the unfortunate Eleventh corps at the battle of Chancellorsville. While striving to rally his men he was severely wounded and did not return to the army until the following spring when he again received command of a division. His troops were the first to occupy Richmond after it was evacuated. He remained in the service for a year after the war was over, being stationed most of the time at Charleston, S. C. In June, 1866, he resigned and took up the practice of law at his old home in Worcester. In April, 1867, he was made judge of the superior court in Massachusetts and in 1873 he was appointed one of the justices of the supreme court of the state. He has held the latter office from that time until his death, with the exception of the four years, from 1877 to 1881, that he was attorney general in President Hayes' cabinet. In politics before the war he was a democrat. He was on at one time during the war by the democratic party as its candidate for governor. One of the last [illegible] in his career before the war occurred when he was United States marshal of Massachusetts. The owner of Sims, the fugitive slave, obtained a writ for his return to slavery. General Devens considered it his duty to serve the writ, and returned the man to his master. But the act was no more agreeable to him than it was to Wendell Phillips, and he instantly endeavored to obtain the freedom of Sims by purchase, offering to pay any amount in reason. Still later, Mrs. Lydia Maria Childs raised a fund for the same purpose. General Devens wrote her and requested that she should return the money to the givers and permit him to pay the whole expense. Mrs. Childs agreed to this but nothing was done because of the breaking out of the war. Sims finally secured his own freedom during the war and was assisted by General Devens as soon as he found it out. Later he appointed him to a good position in the department of justice when he was at its head. In this way General Devens endeavored to wash out an act which was in the line of his duty but which was distasteful to his nature. He was a brave soldier, a just judge and a good citizen.

"Caton Printer" Replies.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Jan 8th 97.

To the Editor of the GAZETTE:

Audacity is sometimes worthy of admiration, even in furtherance of a bad cause, but a plain, unvarnished statement of facts is never defensible. The Republic evidently felt the proof which it received this morning, and in its evening issue makes a bold attempt at justification, at the same time practically ignoring the real point raised in my previous communication.

Of course I understand that everyone connected actively with a newspaper is a worker, and I admit that it is honorable to any man who can justly claim to be a competent printer. I do not know what has been the custom of newspapers in this city with reference to charging for the insertion of notices offered by labor unions. But these things are not in any sense material to the point at issue, and I again ask the question. Why, if, as the Republic says, it is "attempting to assist laborers to get their due," it does not pay its own employes the same wages paid by two of the papers here?

Permit me to encroach somewhat upon your space to answer in detail some of the Republic's statements and to show their utter falsity. In the first place, the Republic does not pay the union scale. It pays its job room foreman $19 per week, while the union scale is $25. It pays the foreman of the news room $21 per week, while the union scale is $24; it pays its compositors 35 cents per thousand ems for more than 95 per cent of their work, while the union scale is 40 cents for day work. The scale of prices of the printers' union is in printed form, and the Republic knows what those prices are, consequently it has been guilty of a deliberate attempt to mislead the people of this community in making the statement that it pays the union's prices. I have spoken to the committee referred to by the Republic and received a unanimous and flat-footed denial of the declaration that the committee acknowledged "our rates as just and equitable." One more mis statement. "This is an 'open' office." It is not. The typographical union has closed that office to all its members, and every labor union in this city has by resolution or otherwise endorsed that action.

The Republic is not a friend to organized labor, and no one knows it better than he who manages the affairs of that paper. Repeated interviews with him by committees representing the typographical union have resulted in nothing more than evasive answers, and assurances that meant little more than nothing. The writer is in a position to know the sentiment of organized labor toward the Republic, as well as to assure that paper that when it is ready to accord its own laborers their due, there will be no objection to its aid in securing the same from other employers. In fact such aid would be most gratefully received and cheerfully acknowledged; but so long as the Republic confines its labor to generalizations and refuses to take the beam out of its own eye it should not object if the friends of organized labor are somewhat skeptical as to the honesty of purpose. Nor need it be disappointed if people refuse to be hoodwinked by so palpable a fraud as its profession and practice make it. UNION PRINTER.

Fifty-First Congress.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, January 8.—In the senate, after some routine work, the finance bill was taken up, and Mr Stewart asked unanimous consent that a vote should be taken on the bill and amendments at 4 o'clock on Saturday.

After a tedious discussion, Mr. Ingalls said: I realize fully and to the utmost the force of the suggestions of the senator from Maryland, that on a subject of the gravity and importance of this measure, the senate should not be precipitate or improvident, and that the debate should be deliberate and sufficiently protracted to permit all aspects of the bill to be considered. I venture to ask unanimous consent that general debate on the bill shall close with the adjournment on Tuesday next, and that on Wednesday it shall be resumed on the bill and amendments under the ten-minute rule, the final vote to be taken on the passage of the bill, before adjournment on Wednesday.

The proposition was agreed to.

Turpie addressed the senate in support of Stewart's amendment for the free coinage of silver, and in the course of his remarks declared that it was impossible that the senator from Ohio (Sherman) could take a fair unpartial judicial view of that amendment.

Call next addressed the senate, and the bill was then laid aside.

The vote to-day which passed the house bill for a public building at Davenport, Ia., was, on motion of Vest, reconsidered, amended and again passed.

Coke from the commerce committee reported back the house bill to promote the construction of a safe deep harbor on the coast of Texas, giving authority for that purpose to the Corpus Christi and Padre Island company with an amendment, and it was placed on the calendar. After a brief executive session the senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Farquhar of New York moved to go into committee of the whole on the shipping bill, and suggested that some arrangement should be arrived at as to the conclusion of the general debate. Failing to secure an agreement Farquhar moved that the general debate close at 5 o'clock to-day. Farquhar's motion was rejected so that no limit was placed on the discussion.

The house then went into committee of the whole (Burrows of Michigan in the chair) on the shipping bill.

Fithian of Illinois opposed the measure, and Wheeler of Michigan favored it.

Governor of Ohio spoke in favor for the bill.

Pending the conclusion of Grosvenor's remarks the committee rose and the house adjourned.

I. O. O. F. Installation.

Public installation services were held last night by Pike's Peak Lodge No. 38, I O O F in their rooms in the Robertson block Despite the cold and stormy night the room was comfortably filled with the members and their wives and daughters.

The evening's entertainment was opened by an instrumental polka by Professor Seymour. An excellent quartette consisting of Messrs. Seymour, Davis, Mulholland and Bumstead sang a "soldiers" chorus after which the ceremonies of installation were taken up

Deputy G Horn, grand master of the state, conducted the services, assisted by Deputy Grand Master A S Merton, of Leadville, and other members of the grand lodge The officers installed were J J Woodworth, noble grand, A S Blake, vice grand, C H Barnes, secretary A H Wade, permanent secretary, and J. F Shaw, treasurer. The ceremonies were performed in accordance with the ritual of the order and were extremely interesting

After all the new officers had taken their places Past Grand J G Sellers read a report showing the good work done by the lodge in caring for brethren both of this and of other lodges, and demonstrating the steady and assured prosperity of the lodge

A few minutes intermission was taken for social intercourse and then the room was darkened for a series of very amusing shadow pictures which were thrown on a screen by Dr Fowler.

After some vocal and instrumental music the grand master and vice grand master delivered eloquent addresses bearing on the material and moral benefits of Oddfellowship The newly elected noble grand, J J Woodworth, closed the evening with an interesting talk in which were introduced several humorous anecdotes illustrative of various points of the discourse After singing a closing ode the meeting adjourned

The "Corsair"

The 'Corsair,' Rice's dainty spectacular comic opera burlesque, will be the attraction at the opera house next Wednesday night The "Corsair is a cleverly constructed, well dressed musical extravaganza, with a story and plot the language is poetic and the music sweet and tuneful, but at the same time there will be blooming burlesque in there Rice's attractions are the most artistic burlesques, their high order is well known to all theatre goers and their class of entertainment seems never to wear out Evangeline ran for years and is running yet The 'Corsair' is on the same order as 'Evangeline" It has a real well turned plot and the handsome young 'Corsair' and his pretty lady love experience many exciting adventures its spectacular features are well worked up and it introduces a number of pretty young women of voluptuous form and in fascinating costumes There are few managers of this class of attraction who know as much about costuming as does Mr Rice, he has made a study of it, and has seems to be the secret of the popularity of his attractions more than any his Corsair' company this year is said to be one of the largest he has ever carried and one of the most carefully selected The scenic effects are also said to be even better than be-

Democratic Banquet.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan 8—The Academy of Music was bright with many lights and merry with the sound of banqueting upon the occasion of the annual dinner of the Young Men's Democratic association of this city The speaking was begun by Samuel G Thompson president of the association He presided and at the close of his address of welcome he gave the toast, "To the Memory of Jackson" It was drunk standing and in silence

The sentiment was "The principles of democracy They are enduring because they are right, and invincible Because they are just." It had been assigned to ex President Cleveland who was prevented by the pressure of the banquet with these words It is proper that we should have with us the greater leader ex President Cleveland who led the party triumphantly to success when from defeat evolved a great victory, who in administration knew no motive save that which was based upon the right who in wielding the ship of state had but one compass and that the people s interest who with a courage three down the assistant of tariff reform and like his grand old type Jackson practically declared By the Eternal no principle was right and about prevail

Mr Cleveland s address was of commendable length and was heartily applauded

Other speakers were Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania Congressman Breckinridge of Kentucky Hon John F Russell of Massachusetts and J P McConomy of Philadelphia

Ex Secretary of State Bayard responded to the toast The Federal Government s Perpetuity Depends on Constitutional Limitations

Letters of regret from many governors were read Mrs Cleveland occupied a box during the speaking which was brought to a close at midnight by Joseph P McConomy of Philadelphia whose theme was The Young Democracy the Hope and Reliance of the Republic

THE WATCHDOG OF THE TREASURY.

Life Record of Gen. Francis E. Spinner, Recently Deceased.

Gen Francis Elias Spinner, who died recently at Jacksonville Fla., from cancer of the face, will always be remembered as one who played an important part in the great crisis of the civil war He was born in 1802 at German Flats, N Y., received a fair education, learned a trade and then became a merchant He also went to soldiering as a member of the militia, and rose to the rank of major general of the Third division of artillery He was elected sheriff of Herkimer county, in 1836, and from that on took an active interest in politics, among other positions holding that of auditor of the port of New York

RURAL VISITORS RECEIVED BY

From the date of organization of the Republican party Gen Spinner was a consistent and influential member of it. Twice re-elected to the national legislature, he sat three terms in the house of representatives from the first Monday in December, 1863, to the fourth same and exciting 4th day of March 1871 Lincoln's administration began amid clouds and darkest presage Salmon P Chase of Ohio was chosen secretary of the treasury. He in turn, knowing the man's inflexible honesty, financial experience, system and positivity requested that Spinner be appointed treasurer of the United States. This selection was made and he who se "grapevine" autograph on the greenbacks and national bank currency made him celebrated in monetary and business circles throughout the world had charge of the strong vaults and precious boxes of the government for an uninterrupted period of fourteen years. On the last day of June 1875 when there were three and seventy milestones checked upon the tablets of his earthly journey, he passed his official portfolio to his successor His books came within a cent of balancing, and that cent was found after a long search

In securing of every honor conferred upon him it is yet a luminous fact that Gen Spinner's surest fame rests upon and is closely identified with the most peculiar of all strikingly original autographs This signature has been pronounced the despair of graphologists and the treasure trove of collectors" On its light and heavy mystifying pen curves cautionary signals are hung that there's to be no character reading attempted from a whirligig in ink which fairly, if not squarely, contravails the distortions of an owl

The forger has never been thrilled by a microscopic contemplation of Francis E Spinner's every day handwriting, yet it continues the delight of ardent seekers and lovers of the curious, finding this remarkable signature for the first time an expert would be nonplussed, for there is nothing in it or about it that in the least reflects the outward manner or the true inwardness of its architect

In the evening hours of his life Gen Spinner prepared an important work on the historical and political aspects of American finance. Insidious disease, however, undermined the constitution that had long defied the ills to which flesh and age are heirs A ranger of the face slowly sapped his vitality He spent his last years living in a tent on his Florida estate, the mildness of the climate and constant contact with nature doing much to alleviate the pangs of his incurable ailment

The illustration given herewith is reproduced from Scribner's Monthly for April, 1877, and exhibits the then treasurer of the United States giving courteous welcome to two rustic visitors

Could Indorse Him.

He referred me to you as to his honesty"

"And I certainly can indorse him thoroughly. Why, my dear sir, I'd trust that man with—with—why, with an umbrella."—Philadelphia Times

TWO TALENTED CHILDREN

Great Musical Ability Developed at an Early Age

The present decade has been wonderfully prolific of talented children prodigies in various lines and it is very pleasing to observe that nearly all of them are truly childlike in all respects save their exceptional ability They are healthy, happy modest and chubby children,

TOM MARX OF SILK COTTON

from Joseph Hoffman to Tommy Russell that each a prodigy to the public Of this class are the little pianist and violinist

Master Leon Marx is a graceful and handsome lad who began with the violin at the age of 7, and very displayed so much talent that he was put under the tuition of Mr Henry Schmeisser, of Cincinnati and won the Springer gold medal He was born in Cincinnati in 1876

Gussie Cottow is two years younger—born in Shelbyville, Ills, in 1878 Her father is a merchant and her mother was a teacher before marriage The mother is possessed of marked musical ability, and her daughter showed it in an increased degree as soon as she could speak plainly Her mother taught her the piano and at the age of 5 she played with marked success After some years devoted to the common school she entered on a three years' course on the piano and now ranks among the youthful wonders It is a pleasure to add that she is noticeably rosy and robust, as full of fun and life as any 12-year old need be and fairly well educated in the common branches.

The President and the Mormons

President Harrison narrowly escapes being humorous in portions of his message and especially in the paragraph relating to the Mormons His suggestion that though they profess to have abandoned polygamy they still regard it as divine, and that, therefore, "the y who believe it to be rightful should not have the power to make it lawful," is very neatly and happily expressed. It is a fact overlooked by many voters that a state could establish any marriage system it chose and the general government has no power to interfere as it has in a territory

THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 9, 1891

The county commissioners spent the day yesterday in cancelling county warrants.

Wm. Bancroft put up a handsome new sign for H. T. O'Brien's harness establishment yesterday

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union office for James Long, Charles Wilson and Mrs J. J Ashman

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Hiram Hills of Colorado City and Miss Adelia Gandolfo of Colorado Springs.

Regular Communication of El Paso Lodge No 18, A. F. and A. M., this evening at 7 30 p m sharp All Master Masons in good standing are cordially invited to attend

The two Atlas boilers for the new GAZETTE building arrived yesterday, and were taken to the building They attracted considerable attention as they were hauled through the streets.

The directors of the First National bank met on Wednesday and raised the surplus capital of the bank from $50,000 to $100,000 This places the bank among the leading institutions of the kind in the west.

The trial of Mrs Josie Harrington, on the charge of stealing various articles of value from her landlady, Mrs Goodell, before Justice Farrar yesterday morning resulted in a triumphant acquittal, the prisoner being discharged on motion of the prosecuting attorney

A case was on trial in the county court yesterday morning entitled Case vs Hatch, being a suit by Constable Case to recover from Attorney Hatch, on account of papers served, arising over a disagreement The case was taken under advisement.

Owing to the storm and to some delay in preparing apparatus, Professor Cajori's first lecture of his series on electricity has been postponed until Friday, January 16, at 3 o'clock. These lectures will be of the highest scientific interest, and should be liberally patronized.

All persons wishing to join the Order of the Iron Hall are advised that a branch will be organized to-morrow night at the Knights of Honor hall, and that the examiner, Dr. Mutz, is required to hand in the applications before that time. The meeting will be called to order at 7 30 by J. Woodland, deputy.

There was a very pleasant progressive euchre party at the New Alamo last evening. The prizes were distributed as follows: Mrs H Vail, of Aurora, Ind., got the first lady's prize, and Mrs. Price, of this city, the second; Mr. Price, of this city, got the first gentleman's prize, and Colonel H. Bigelow the second, while Clerk H. L. Dailey, of the Alamo, won the "booby," a small Japanese bull frog.

In the report of the annual meeting of the First Congregational church in yesterday's paper two slight errors should be corrected. The $30,636.20 reported as paid in during the year, towards the new building, was mostly paid in the previous year. But the final report was not made until last night. The indebtedness on the organ is not $2900 but $900

To-morrow evening will be produced W. S. Gilbert's drama, "Pygmalion and Galatea," by a company of Colorado Springs amateurs. A great deal of time has been expended in preparing for the play, and it will be properly staged and mounted. The play is written in Gilbert's satirical vein and one of his best works The entertainment is for the benefit of the organ fund of Grace church, and will be given by the following cast:

|---|---|
| Pygmalion | Mr. Marshall H. Swan, Jr. |
| Cleon | Mr Clarence Arnold |
| Chryses | Mr Wendell Wilcox |
| A Youth | Mr Malcolm Roberts |
| Midas | Miss Minnie Hart |
| Galatea | Miss Hart |
| Cynisca | Miss Bo Ilk |
| Daphne | Miss M. Williams |
| Myrtale | Zella Mc Dowell Smith |

We call attention this morning to the advertisement of Messrs. E F. Welles & Co. on the second page. This firm is doing a business that is a credit to the city and the envy of all competitors They begin the new year with increased facilities, a large and varied stock of the finest goods in their line, and invite the inspection of all persons interested, whether purchasers or not. They are sole agents for the H. H. Babcock Carriage company of New York, from whom they very recently received another car load of new and novel vehicles, and they manufacture every variety of harness from the best Pittsburg oak tanned leather. Any one favoring this concern with a call will receive the most polite attention and be well repaid for their visit.

The snow of Wednesday night continued all day yesterday, and, although the fall has not been heavy, the wind accompanying it caused heavy drifts There was very little delay on the railroads entering the city, however, and yesterday evening all mails were reported in at the postoffice The electric cars had the hardest time, but by great effort were kept running on all the lines It was necessary to couple two of the old cars in several instances to get the required power The difficulty is that the wheels get off the track on the snow, leaving no ground current So long as the wheels can be made to touch the track the cars will go, and the greatest difficulty was experienced in the north end part of the city, where the drifts occur. Cars were kept running all of last night to keep the tracks clear

The "hallelujah wedding" occurred at the Salvation army last night, being the marriage of Hiram Hills of Colorado City and Miss Adelia Gandolfo of this city, both members of the army In spite of the storm a very goodly number of persons paid their 25 cents to witness the ceremony Soon after the opening of the evening service the contracting parties stood up on the platform in their uniforms, accompanied by two brothers and sisters on each side Captain Woods of the army in a rather nervous manner then read from a book the ceremony according to the rites of the army, which consisted largely in professions of allegiance to the organization now and in the time to come It was a long ceremony, and quite trying on the bridal couple At the conclusion of this ceremony Rev. E. L. Wyman, of this city, performed the real ceremony in a few words An "experience" meeting followed for an hour and a half, during which the bridegroom told a few things that he hoped [illegible]

In another column will be found a new and complete market report It has been the effort to have this embrace all the staples which are subject to material variations. It will be changed every week and will be kept up to date as far as possible. The figures are given by Messrs. A. Hemenway & Son, J. F. Seldomridge & Son, and Stark & Titus, and are reliable.

Central Office for Austin Bluff Property.

The finest Suburban Residence Location—combining view of mountain and plain—in the state. Beautiful parks, overgrown with large pine trees—unequalled as a health location. Pure air, pure water, and plenty of it, both for domestic and irrigating purposes. No smoke! No dust! The track of the Electric Car Line is already laid from one of the parks in the center of this property to the city limits Electric Cars are now running, bringing this property within fifteen minutes' ride from the postoffice. Several fine residences will be erected on this property at an early date Special Inducements offered for the next 60 days to parties buying lots with the intention of building at once. Why locate in the smoke and dust of our city when such an opportunity is offered? Each lot contains from one to four acres. Specially adapted for fine residences This location speaks for itself. All that we ask is an inspection of the property before purchasing.

FIRE, FIRE, FIRE! As the cold wave sets in we read in every paper of FIRES. Look after your INSURANCE and be safe. We represent only FIRST-CLASS COMPANIES and guarantee prompt and equitable adjustment in case of loss. Call at office and take out INSURANCE that INSURES.
